5TH Annual APEC LSIF
Adelaide, Australia  April 19-20, 2007

Kim, Dong Sup
May 8, 2007
dskeem@fda.go.kr
Brief Review

- Industry, Academy, government

- 13 Countries attended:
  - Korea, Australia, Singapore, Taiwan, Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Brunei, Canada, Mexico, Chile, USA

- 80 people attended
1. Continuing challenges in communicable diseases and rapid ageing, health issues are becoming central to economic and social viability

- health policy decision
- the impact of non-health policies
- changes in risk-factor and disease profiles
Conclusion

2. A need for an integrated approach
   - Coordination between the public and private sector
   - Involving scientific, health policy, financial expertise in a coordinated way
   - Dialogue with finance senior officials in the margins of the July 31 – August 3rd Finance Ministers meeting

3. More cost effective, investment in health innovation
   - Increased funding
   - Better management
Conclusion

4. prevention, early detection and early intervention

5. Building effective use of public-private partnership