

Dr. Celeste Aurora Sánchez González

Dr. Celeste Sánchez is titular Investigator of the Cuban Academy of Sciences. She has fourteen-year experience in the pharmaceutical industry and more than thirty in regulatory activities. She works in active collaboration with the World and the Pan American Health Organizations.

She published more than 90 scientific articles and participated in more than 110 national and international scientific events. She has taught more than 80 courses inside and outside the country about topics related to the pharmaceutical field. She has coordinated more than ten national and one international research projects.

She holds a Bachelor in Pharmaceutical Biochemist, a Master in Technology and Control of Drugs, and a PhD on Pharmaceutical Sciences from the University of Havana, Cuba.