

Ms. Jane Mashingia

Ms. Mashingia is working with EAC Secretariat as Senior Health Officer heading the EAC Medicines, Food Safety and Health Technologies Unit within the EAC Health Department.

Ms. Mashingia started her carrier in 2002 as a Quality Control Manager in a Pharmaceutical Industry before joining clinical trial research related work with HIV Prevention Trials Network (HPTN) in Tanzania. She has over ten years of work experience with Regional Inter-Governmental Organization such as East Central and Southern Africa Health Community (ECSA-HC), 2007-2011 and East African Community (EAC) since 2011.

During her carrier path, she has designed, coordinated and implemented various regional health initiatives on access to Medicines, Regulatory System Strengthening and Harmonisation. She is a member of the Steering Committee for the African Medicines Regulatory Harmonisation (AMRH) Initiative under the Umbrella of the African Union Development Agency formerly known as AU-NEPAD Agency. She has been actively involved in ICH activities since 2012.

Ms. Mashingia graduated with a Bachelor of Pharmacy Degree and Masters in Public Health from University of Dar Es Salaam in 2006. She pursued a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) at the Eastern Southern African Management Institute (ESAMI) and Maastricht School of Management in 2015. Currently, she is a graduate student for Masters of Science in Biotechnology, Innovation and Regulatory Sciences offered by Purdue University, USA.