

Dr. Léo Bouthillier

Dr. Bouthillier is currently the Director of the Bureau of Cardiology, Allergy and Neurological Sciences, in the Therapeutic Products Directorate, which is responsible for the market approval of prescription pharmaceutical drugs.

In his previous positions with Health Canada, Canada, Dr. Bouthillier was responsible for the authorization of clinical trials and worked in programs such as the Marketed Health Products Directorate and the Pest Management Regulatory Agency.

Dr. Bouthillier represents Health Canada, Canada at the Assembly and Management Committee of the ICH and at the International Pharmaceutical Regulators Programme.

Dr. Bouthillier obtained a Ph.D. from Université de Montréal in the field of toxicology.