

Ms. Camille Jackson

Ms. Jackson is currently Associate Vice President of Science and Regulatory Advocacy at PhRMA, the US industry association representing the country's leading innovative biopharmaceutical research companies devoted to discovering and developing medicines that enable patients to live longer, healthier and more productive lives.

In this role, she manages PhRMA's international regulatory policy initiatives including engagement in the International Council for Harmonization (ICH) and the APEC Regulatory Harmonization Steering Committee (RHSC).

An experienced scientific and regulatory program manager, Ms. Jackson has worked with academia, governments, non-profit organizations, and the pharmaceutical industry on large biomedical research funding and policy initiatives, and has particular knowledge in initiatives related to international regulatory convergence and pharmaceutical manufacturing. She is based in Washington, DC.