

Dr. Adel Alharf

Dr. Alharf is Vice President of Drug Sector at the Saudi Food and Drug Authority (SFDA). Dr. Alharf hold a PhD degree in medicine and therapeutics from the University of Glasgow. In this role, he is responsible for the strategic and tactical oversight of Drug Sector's activities including licensing, scientific evaluation, cosmetics regulations, and pharmacovigilance.

Preceding his current position, Dr. Alharf was the Executive Director of Vigilance and Benefit/Risk Assessment Department. Dr. Alharf's works was recognized by national and international societies. He was the champion for many pharmacovigilance and drug safety activities.

Dr. Alharf actively leading the Executive Committee of board of directors of the Saudi Authority for Intellectual Property. He is also a member of the Executive Body of Gulf Health Council, which is responsible for the oversight of centralized drug registration and procurement of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC).