

Dr. Nobumasa Nakashima

Dr. Nakashima has taken his position as International Planning Director since September 2014 and Director of Office of International Regulatory Affairs, MHLW since April 2016.

After he earned his master degree at School of Pharmacy, Tokyo University of Pharmacy and Life Sciences, Dr. Nakashima joined MHLW in April 1992. In the international field, he built his career at WHO and OECD. He was Office Director of the International Programs at PMDA for 2 years since August 2012.

He is a licensed pharmacist and received a doctoral degree in Health and Welfare, and Health Service Management.

He is a representative of MHLW/PMDA, Japan for the ICH, IPRF, APEC RHSC and other regulatory forums. He is also a chair of the International Cooperation on Cosmetics Regulation (ICCR).